DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. § 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

The Information Disclosure Statement

The prior art cited in the information disclosure statement filed on August 27, 2003 has been considered.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-16 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-16 of copending Application No. 10/609,817. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-16 of this application are anticipated by claims 1-16 of Application 10/609,817. The only difference between the claims in this application and the copending application is the thickness of the rod part in the arc electrode and the grinding angle of the pointed end of the arc electrode. The thickness of the rod part in this application is between 2 and 10 mm and the thickness of the rod part in the copending application is between 3 and 10 mm. The grinding angle of the pointed end in this application is between 40 and 130 degrees and the grinding angle of the pointed end in the copending application is between 50 and 130 mm. The range of the thickness of the rod part of the copending application is within the range of the thickness of the rod part of the present application. The range of the grinding angle of the copending application is within the range of the grinding angle of the present application.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
